

Competition regulations
about the International children's card contest
«Sun and peace to the Children of the world!»
to the World Children's Day

I. General complaints

1.1. The aim of the contest is to draw the attention of the whole world to the war in Ukraine, to the problems of peace, security and protection of children; to promote the formation of basic values: peace, freedom, equality, rule of law; to actualize the problem of child protection and to develop the environment friendly to children all over the world; to focus on the problems of world childhood; peaceful existence, the right to live in a safe world.

1.2. The main tasks of the contest are to expand knowledge about World Children's Day as the day of world fellowship and understanding of children; to improve the welfare of children all over the world; to protect childhood in Ukraine and the world as a strategic national priority; to form patriotic feelings, to support children's creative abilities.

1.3. Contest organizers: National Library of Ukraine for Children, National Section of the International Board of Books for Young People IBBY, Ukrainian Association of Children Library Workers, Charitable Organization «Charity Foundation for Development of the National Library of Ukraine for Children», National Union of Artists of Ukraine and LLC «AVK CONFECTIONERY».

II. Terms of the contest

- 2.1. Children from Ukraine and other countries of the world take part in the contest.
- 2.2. The contest is held from June 1 to November 20 (World Children's Day), 2022.
- 2.3. The participants of the contest prepare a drawing-card, digitize it and send to nbudd@ukr.net by October 15.

2.4. Cards are sent with a short message about the author: surname, name, date of birth; school class; home addresses, e-mail, own mobile phone and one of the parents with his or her name, which is accessible in networks Telegram, WhatsApp, Viber.

III. Identification and recognition of the winners of the contest

3.1. For the winners of the competition are established I, II, III places for each age category:

- 1-4 year of study;
- 5-8 year of study;
- 9-11 year of study.

3.2. The honorary jury assesses the cards and determines the winners by November 20, 2022.

3.3. The winners of the contest will be announced on November 20 in the World Children's Day. They will be awarded with diplomas and memorable prizes.

3.4. According to the results of the International children's card contest «Sun and peace to the Children of the world!» by the World Children's Day the almanac with 100 best works will be prepared .

3.5. After the announcement of the winners of the contest a charitable auction-sale of cards is planned. They will be available on the website IBBY UA <https://chl.kiev.ua/Default.aspx?id=7825> . The funds from the sale of cards will be used to support children of Ukraine affected by the war.